

Faculty Senate Resolution May 8, 2002

Whereas, procedures exist for the annual evaluation of University of Arkansas administrators, and

Whereas, some of the administrative evaluations account for the opinions of the constituents they serve; many administrative evaluations do not, and

Whereas, there is no standardized procedure for annual evaluation of administrative personnel, and

Whereas, the input from constituents of each administrator should result in a more effective and responsive administration.

Therefore, Be it Resolved, that the Faculty Senate requests the Administration develop procedures and instruments for the annual evaluation of University of Arkansas administrators, as outlined below, that is both formalized and solicits anonymous input from the constituents each serves, and

Be it further resolved, that the Faculty Senate suggests the following constituents be utilized as evaluators for the administrative personnel listed below:

Chancellor: Vice-chancellors, deans, assistant and associate deans, and a random sample of department chairs and faculty.

Provost and all vice-chancellors: Deans, assistant and associate deans, and a random sample of department chairs and faculty.

Vice-provost and Graduate School Dean, and Graduate School Associate Dean: Department chairs and a random sample of graduate faculty.

Dean of the Library: Library faculty and a random sample of academic faculty. This will include an assessment of how well the library meets the needs of the academic community.

Deans and their administrative staff (including associate and assistant deans): Department chairs and a random sample of faculty in their respective colleges.

Director of Research and Sponsored Programs: A random sample of faculty who submitted proposals for external funding or had active grants during the evaluation period.

Director of the Physical Plant: All building executives.

Director of Campus Access: A random sample of students, who required substantial assistance, and their instructors during the evaluation period.
