Justification for this request

Since inception, this certificate has had <10 participants. Currently the certificate only has 1 enrollee. Additionally, the requirement for this certificate is 9 hours credit and therefore is more suitable for a micro-certificate when looking at current definitions. Currently, the certificate program only has one student enrolled and the student will be finished in the Summer, 2023. The courses for this certificate are offered as a part of the Child Advocacy Studies Minor and as an elective for students earning a Social Work minor. There will be no change in required course offerings for this certificate so there will be no issues with student completing this summer.
