Description and justification of the request

Description of specific change	Justification for this change
While the edits look like a major curriculum change, most of it is catalog cleanup to clearly delineate core credits for the MUSCMM degree from the concentration credits shown elsewhere. The Concentration name has been changed from "Music History" to "Musicology."	The concentration name change indicates that the concentration includes music history as well as ethnomusicology. It does not require any course changes. It is an indication of the types of courses that are already included.
