Program Goals and Objectives

Program Goals and Objectives

1. International Focus

To foster a global vision for UA students, faculty, and community that focuses primarily on North Africa and the Levant, but including the regions of Iran, Turkey, and current strategic areas (Turkic, etc.) in context with broader perspectives of regional and global knowledge, sensitivity, and awareness.

2. Interdisciplinary Focus

To foster education from a spectrum of disciplinary perspectives within context of our regional and global thrusts including geography, politics, history, culture, society, art and architecture, agriculture and resource management.

3. Area Studies Focus

To foster understanding of geographic, cultural, and historical processes that define different geo-cultural areas of academic study: North Africa, the Levant, and the broader Middle East.

Learning Outcomes

Learning Outcomes

1. Global Geo-Cultural Vision

To foster appreciation of global complexities including geographic, political, economic, historic, and cultural forces that have shaped and are currently shaping geo-cultural regions of North Africa and the Middle East.

2. Intercultural Sensitivity/Cross-cultural Communication

To foster critical understanding of numerous alternative, integrated, and complex world views.

3. Global Identity Politics – Ethnic, Religious, Geographic, National, Gender, etc.

To foster appreciation of complex intersections of identity, meaning, and interpretation on a regional and/or global scale.

4. Global Power/Political Relations

To foster critical understanding of global politics and diverse perspectives at various levels and scales including national, regional, global, as well as in the broader context of multiple scales.

5. US in World History/Affairs

To foster critical understanding of US international relations in the regional and/or global arena.

6. Geographic/Historical Roots of the Present

To foster appreciation and understanding of how history and geography have shaped our world, the Middle East, North Africa, and the Mediterranean.

Learning Outcomes

7. Foreign Language Skills

To foster appreciation/understanding of global cultures through language acquisition/literacy.

8. Study Abroad Experience

To foster and facilitate opportunities to study and/or live in a foreign setting related to area studies major for broader cultural, geographic, historic, and social understanding.

9. Additional skills

To foster additional skills related to their major fields of study that enhances the links between regional major (i.e. Middle East Studies) and their broader discipline (geography, history, political science, anthropology, and comparative literature and language). These may include archaeological field methods, cartography and GIS, statistical analysis, survey instrumentation, and archival research.

Description and justification of the request

Description of specific change	Justification for this change
Change of Arabic language requirement for MEST Minor.	This puts our Arabic language requirement in line with other Middle East Studies undergraduate minors in the rest of the country.

Reviewer Comments

Alice Griffin (agriffin) (05/22/19 12:49 pm): Changed effective catalog date from fall 2019 to fall 2020. It is too late to complete the approval process in time for this year's catalog. Also changed the program review date from 2021-2022 to NA. Minor programs are not reviewed.

Lisa Kulczak (lkulcza) (09/18/19 4:57 pm): This was set with the incorrect "department" chair. Corrected now so the MEST program director can approve this proposal.
