Program Requirements and Description

Requirements

Requirements for Literature and Culture Studies Topical Concentration

1

~~The department will maintain a list of current Topical areas and will note on course descriptions which courses will meet a given topical area's focus in any given semester.~~

The Literary and Cultural Studies concentration provides students with the opportunity to explore a wide variety of literature, from the earliest texts in English to contemporary multimedia forms, and everything in between. In addition to developing their writing, critical thinking skills, and intercultural competencies, students will gain expertise in a variety of analytical approaches to literature, culture, and multimedia works.

~~12 credit hours in courses from a Topical area of focus.~~¹ 12

~~9 hours of general electives. Students should consult with a faculty mentor when choosing general electives in order to select courses (or a supplementary minor or degree) that best support their professional goals and concentration focus.~~ 9

ENGL 31003 Approaches to Critical Thinking About Literature and Culture 3

Take 18 credit hours of English (ENGL) courses numbered 30000 level or higher. 18

Additionally, Up to 6 credit hours of courses numbered 30000 level or higher can also be from any combination of the following:

Any courses with the following course prefix: ARSC, CLST, COMM, DANC, HIST, HUMN, IDST, PHIL, THTR

Any courses from the Department of World Languages, Literatures, and Cultures (This includes: ARAB, CHIN, CLST, CHRK, FREN, GERM, GREK, ITAL, JAPN, LATN, PORT, RUSS, SPAN, or WLLC)

Any courses from the Department of Music (This includes: MUAC, MAUP, MUSY, MUED, MUEN, MUHS, MUIN, MUPD, MUTH, and MUSC)

Any courses from the School of Art (This includes: ARED, ARHS, ARTS, and GDES)

Any courses chosen from the approved catalog of studies in the African and African-American Studies major, Asian Studies major, Gender Studies minor, Indigenous studies minor, Jewish Studies minor, Latin American and Latino Studies major, Middle East Studies major, Medical Humanities Minor, Medieval and Renaissance Studies Minor, or Southern Studies Minor.

Approval of other courses outside these lists requires departmental consent

Program Goals and Objectives

Program Goals and Objectives

1. Students in the English B.A. program should acquire both general and specialized knowledge in their field, as well as develop academic skills in preparation for careers in academia, education, and a number of ALTAC careers.
2. B.A. students should also gain professionalization skills and knowledge in preparation for going on the job market or applying to graduate programs.
3. B.A. students should be able to complete their degrees in a timely fashion.

Learning Outcomes

Learning Outcomes

1. B.A. students should demonstrate a comprehensive knowledge of literary works in the English language, from the Medieval Period to the present. This knowledge should include a basic understanding of broad concepts such as genres, periods, and movements as well as a familiarity with a variety of individual texts that exemplify these concepts.

Learning Outcomes

2. B.A. students should be able to demonstrate knowledge of and an appreciation for diversity, specifically as it relates to a wide range of English-speaking cultures.
3. B.A. students should possess skills for the appreciation and critical reading of literary texts, including a general knowledge of techniques of literary analysis and criticism, and be able to use these techniques to write intelligently about literature.
4. B.A. students should be able to analyze, create, and defend complex arguments in correct and rhetorically effective written English.
5. B.A. students majoring only in English should be able to complete their degrees in 4 years; B.A. students with additional majors should be able to complete their degrees in 4 to 5 years, depending upon number and type of additional majors.
6. Graduating B.A. students should be able to secure employment, or to pursue additional education, that will aid them in developing professional careers.
