21 credit hours in political science (PLSC) courses numbered 3000-level or higher. No more than 9 credit hours may come from PLSC 300V, PLSC 394V, PLSC 498V, or PLSC 499VH.

Students must satisfy either Requirement A or Requirement B from below.

Requirement A

Completion of a world language course up to the Intermediate II level. Note: Students pursuing Requirement A must complete a different Humanities University/state minimum core course in addition to the Intermediate I level course of a world language which otherwise normally counts towards this requirement.

Requirement B

Total Hours

30 semester hours of PLSC courses, at least 21 of which must be above 3000. Students are required to take both: PLSC 2003 American National Government (ACTS Equivalency = PLSC 2003) and PLSC 2013 Introduction to Comparative Politics. Students must choose one of the following: PLSC 2813 Introduction to International Relations or PLSC 3103 Public Administration. Students fulfill the remaining requirements from among any of the available political science courses. At least 21 hours must be 3000-4000 level courses. No more than 9 hours may come from PLSC 300V, PLSC 394V, PLSC 498V, or PLSC 499V. Additional Course Requirements (3-12 hours): Students must satisfy either Requirement A or Requirement B.

Requirement A: Students must demonstrate proficiency in a single modern or classical language other than English by completion of a world language course numbered 2013 (Intermediate II). This is usually accomplished through completion of a sequence of four language courses: 1003, 1013, 2003 and 2013. Students may seek credit for any omitted courses in the language sequence (based on placement at a higher level), by passing an advanced language course with a grade of “C” or above. Such credit will be awarded at the request of the student by filing application to the World Languages, Literatures, and Cultures (WLLC) Department. Students with advanced knowledge of a language may also contact the WLLC Department regarding credit by exam. Students pursuing this track must complete an approved university/state core humanities course in addition to the world language 2003 Intermediate I course, if credit for 2003 is earned. Requirement B: Students must complete these three requirements:

8-Semester Plan

Eight-Semester Degree Program

Political Science B.A.: Students wishing to follow the eight-semester degree plan should also see the Eight-Semester Degree Policy in the Academic Regulations chapter for university requirements of the program as well as the Fulbright College requirements.

University/state minimum core requirements Core requirement hours may vary by individual, based on placement and previous credit granted. Once all core requirements are met, students may substitute with a three-hour (or more) general electives or advanced elective in place of a core area. Students should consult with their academic advisor.

Program Goals and Objectives

Program Goals and Objectives

PLSC prepares its students to develop:

☐ a thorough understanding of selected topics in domestic or international affairs
☐ a comprehension of diversity politics and policy
☐ an understanding of appropriate methodologies to study issues and topics associated with political science
☐ a thorough career oriented skill set

NA

Learning Outcomes

Learning Outcomes
Learning Outcomes

At the end of their studies students should be able to:

1. understand the linkage between political, social, and economic issues, with special attention to diversity;
2. apply that knowledge to the analysis of real world domestic and international political problems;
3. write, analyze and communicate in a professionally competent manner;
4. grasp the role of institutions and organizations in the shaping of politics in both domestic and international settings. NA
