Program Requirements and Description

Requirements

B.A. in International and Global Studies

In addition to the University Core requirements and the Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences Graduation Requirements, the B.A. in International and Global Studies requires 120 hours of coursework, including the following courses.

General Requirements

A minimum of 42 hours to include:

INST 2013	Introduction to International and Global Studies	3
INST 4003	International Studies Seminar	3
or INST 4003H	Honors International Studies Seminar

Economics Requirement 3

(Also meets University Core Requirement)

ECON 2143	Basic Economics: Theory and Practice (recommended) 1
or ECON 2013	Principles of Macroeconomics (ACTS Equivalency = ECON 2103)
or ECON 2023	Principles of Microeconomics (ACTS Equivalency = ECON 2203)

World Culture Requirement 6

Choose two of the following (ANTH 1023, GEOS 2003, and HIST 1123 also meets University Core Requirements):

ANTH 1023	Introduction to Cultural Anthropology (ACTS Equivalency = ANTH 2013)
GEOS 2003	World Regional Geography (ACTS Equivalency = GEOG 2103)
HIST 1123	Institutions and Ideas of World Civilizations II (ACTS Equivalency = HIST 1123)
PLSC 2813	Introduction to International Relations

Mathematics Requirement 3

MATH 2043	Survey of Calculus (ACTS Equivalency = MATH 2203)
MATH 2053	Finite Mathematics
MATH 2183	Mathematical Reasoning in a Quantitative World
STAT 2303	Principles of Statistics (ACTS Equivalency = MATH 2103)

Language Requirement

18

Six credit hours of 3000-level or higher modern world language instruction in one of the following languages: Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Russian, or Spanish. Students completing the European and Transatlantic Affairs Concentration must select a language from French, German, Italian, Russian, or Spanish. Students completing the Global South Concentration must select a language from Arabic, French, Portuguese, or Spanish. This requirement cannot be fulfilled with 3 credits in one language and three credits in another language. Students may need to fulfill prerequisites in a world language at the 1003, 1013, 2003, or 2013 levels, depending on placement in that language. Students may meet this requirement with the study of other languages with permission of the International and Global Studies director.

Program Goals and Objectives

Program Goals and Objectives

Program Goals and Objectives

Program Goals and Objectives

1. Promote familiarity with historical and conceptual conceptualizations of the Global South with a focus on Africa, Latin America, and the Middle East.
2. Cultivate interdisciplinary understanding of the salient issues across the regions of the Global South, including but not limited to underdevelopment, gender disparity, urban growth, climate change, migration, and indigenous rights.
3. Think critically about how issues in the Global South are inherently linked to changing balances of power and historical legacies.
4. Develop deeper understanding of the cultures, economies, and politics of selected regions within the Global South through choice of elective courses and language training.

NA

Learning Outcomes

Learning Outcomes

1. Explain how different disciplinary approaches inform general understanding of international affairs and relationships in the Global South and its constituent regions.
2. Identify and describe key features of the Global South and selected constituent regions, including but not limited to its history, geography, economy, and cultures.
3. Describe the historical legacies and global political forces shaping the Global South today.
4. Demonstrate the salient cultural, economic, and political features of at least one region within the Global South.

NA

Description and justification of the request

Description of specific change	Justification for this change
Addition of new concentration in Global South	Concentration is needed to meet program's mission of studying global integration processes; concentration extends mission beyond Europe and U.S. Concentration meets needs of approximately one third of INST majors with focused interests in global south regions, especially Africa, Latin America, and Middle East.
