Program Goals and Objectives

Program Goals and Objectives

The Outdoor Leadership Minor will prepare students for leadership roles in a wide variety of settings through hands-on learning experiences. Coursework focuses on developing student’s skills in leadership principles, professional ethics, group dynamics, instructional abilities, program planning, environmental awareness, judgement, decision making, and risk management.

Learning Outcomes

Learning Outcomes

Students completing the course work within the Outdoor Leadership Minor will:

1. Develop an understanding of the history and theories of leadership
2. Identify and evaluate human dimensions of leadership including: human-environmental interaction, ethics, diversity, and group dynamics
3. Demonstrate the ability to transfer general leadership skills to other areas of personal and professional pursuits
4. Demonstrate competency in select outdoor recreation skill areas
5. Apply risk management, operational procedures, and acceptable field practice models within outdoor recreational programming
6. Apply concepts of experiential learning and group facilitation techniques
7. Utilize effective feedback models for the purpose of self and peer development
8. Develop critical thinking skills in situations that provide self-growth and development
