Program Goals and Objectives

Program Goals and Objectives

The Ed.D. in Adult and Lifelong Learning degree prepares students for employment in programs that provide adult literacy and education, lifelong learning, community and nonprofit organizations, military education, postsecondary education, health care, and continuing professional education. Coursework focuses on assessing, designing, implementing, and evaluating educational programs for adult learners across diverse settings. The program prepares professionals for success in increasingly multicultural and data-driven environments of public and private sector enterprises.

Learning Outcomes

Learning Outcomes

1. Describe the educational needs of adult learners in a myriad of adult and lifelong learning environments.
2. Develop and implement procedures to assess the learning needs of adult learners.
3. Create and design instructional programs aimed at meeting the needs of adult learners.
4. Demonstrate leadership and management skills applicable to the organization and administration of adult and lifelong learning programs.
5. Apply problem-solving skills in order to research and evaluate the impact of adult and lifelong learning programs on participants.

Description and Justification for this request
