Program Goals and Objectives

Program Goals and Objectives

The Executive MBA program is designed for individuals who are working full time. It develops students to run a complex business organization in an effective way. The skills emphasized in the program include global awareness, analytical skills, communication abilities and integrative skills that allow students to effectively make complex business decisions. Students who join this program are expected to bring unique skills derived from prior technical training or business experience.

Learning Outcomes

Learning Outcomes

Learning Outcomes

Graduates of the MBA program at the Sam M. Walton College of Business will be able to:

- Collect, organize, and analyze relevant economic, financial, marketing, legal, and technical information using appropriate tools and strategies.
- Demonstrate persuasive communication skills, both individually and as a part of a team.
- Recognize and explain the ethical consequences of business decisions.
- Employ strategic approaches to solve managerial challenges and address potential opportunities.
- Synthesize information to make recommendations that support achievement of organizational goals.
