Course Changes Pending Approval from Faculty Senate

Code	Field	Old Value	New Value
AGED 5001	Can this course be repeated for degree credit?	No	Yes
	Catalog Title	Seminar (Irregular)	Seminar
	Are multiple enrollments allowed in a term?	No	Yes
	Proposed Effective Date		Fall 2018
	Academic Level		Graduate
	Typically Offered		Fall and Spring
	Course Delivery Method		On campus Off campus
	Off Campus Delivery		Online/Web-based
	Total credits allowed		3
	Total completions		3
	Topics		Proposal Development  Grant Writing  Technical Communication
	Title/Description Change Type		Minor (stylistic/editorial) Change
	Prerequisite(s)		Graduate level.
	Justification		This minor change adds specificity to the topics that will be covered in the AGED 5001 seminar sections. The three seminar sections will now be required in the place of AGED 5483, Technical Communication (the course used to lead graduate students through the thesis/dissertation process).
Reviewer Comments		mrevans - Wed, 27 Sep 2017 20:09:09 GMT - I have concerns in how this is being set up. It is going to be difficult to track that students have taken one from each of the three areas. It is also going to require manual reviewing on audits. A better way to have done this would have been to create 5001, 5011 and 5021 or something equivalent so that each topic had a different course number to denote that each topic had been taken by the student.

BMEG 2614	Create Non Credit Drill?	Yes	No
	Course Code	BMEG 2613	BMEG 2614
	Proposed Effective Date	Summer 2017	Fall 2018
	Course Number	2613	2614
	Prerequisite(s)	GNEG 1322H or GNEG 1121 or GNEG 1103; CHEM 1113 or CHEM 1103, each with a grade of C or better, and MATH 2554 and PHYS 2054.	(GNEG 1322H, or GNEG 1121, or GNEG 1103), (CHEM 1113 or CHEM 1103, each with a grade of C or better), MATH 2554 and PHYS 2054.
	Credit Hours	3	4

	Justification	The course GNEG 1322H has been added as an equivalent to GNEG 1121 and GNEG 1103.  CHEM 1101L is no longer required under the Biomedical Engineering degree plan, therefore it was removed.	The course has been modified earlier to teach MATLAB during the drill sections, due to the need for students to learn MATLAB early in their curriculum. Non-credit drills have been offered for two semesters now, with good feedback, and the course will be increased to 4 hours to offer the drill section as a 1 hour credit and to expand it as a significant portion of the course.

	Course Code	BMEG 4404	BMEG 4403
	Proposed Effective Date	Fall 2014	Fall 2018
	Course Number	4404	4403
	Credit Hours	4	3
	Justification	This course was taught as a 470v BMEG elective in Fall 2013. It should be added as a regularly taught elective effective Fall 2014. The addition of this course will enhance the elective options for biomedical engineering students. This is necessary to meet the needs of our department curriculum.	BMEG 4404, which used to be taught with BMEG 5504, will now be taught separately from the graduate microscopy course, and will reduce down to a 3 credit hour course. The undergraduate version of Biomedical Microscopy requires less intensive laboratory time for the students groups to complete their individual projects. In-class demonstrations are still performed, but there is no longer structured laboratory time outside of scheduled class hours.

CVEG 5293	Short Course Title	HAZARDOUS WASTE MGMT	WATER REUSE
	Catalog Title	Hazardous Waste Management	Water Reuse
	Catalog Description	This graduate level course is formulated to provide students with theoretical and practical information on hazardous waste management from "cradle to grave". This includes hazardous waste generation, storage, transportation, treatment, disposal, and minimization strategies. This course emphasizes hazardous waste regulations and the physical, chemical, and biological technologies that can be used to manage these wastes and protect human health and the environment.	CVEG 5293 is a graduate-level course that discusses topics related to water reclamation and reuse. Topics include past and current practices of water reuse, health and environmental issues related to water reuse, water technologies and systems for water reuse, and water reuse applications.

	Short Course Title	METHODS AND STANDARDS	WORK METHODS AND ERGONOMICS
	Catalog Title	Methods and Standards	Work Methods and Ergonomics
	Catalog Description	Fundamental rules of motion economy; motion analysis by means of charts; diagrams; work place design; tool and equipment selection; operator selection; and job description and analysis. Fundamentals of time study; observed and synthetic times; use of standard data and time formula; leveling; rating; allowances; and work sampling. Laboratory required.	Ways of designing jobs, machines, operations and work environments so they are compatible with human capacities and limitations. Work methods topics include methods analysis, time studies, work sampling and learning curves. Cognitive and physical capabilities and limitations of humans are addressed through the study of human information processing, motor control theory, anthropometry, biomechanics, work physiology and manual material handling. Design of controls and displays, hand tools and workstations, along with work related musculoskeletal disorders. Laboratory required.
	Course Code	INEG 3713	INEG 3714
	Proposed Effective Date	Fall 2015	Fall 2018
	Course Number	3713	3714
	Prerequisite(s)	INEG 2313.
	Credit Hours	3	4
	Justification	Time studies are discussed and I do a time study lab where students are encouraged to download apps to their smartphones to allow them to more easily complete the time study, but there is not a common piece of software or technology that is used to develop these. Additionally, the course description mentions nothing about work sampling which a fairly major component of the course.	The content of INEG 3713 is being merged with a previous course (INEG 3723 Ergonomics). The reasons for this merger are to reduce the overlap between the two courses, to more closely align the department's undergraduate requirements with the department's faculty expertise, and to shorten a long chain of pre-requisites in the the department's eight-semester plan.

	Justification		Physics departments incoming graduate students were required to take PHYS 400V (Laboratory and Classroom Practices in Physics), however due to recent changes to the catalog they can longer take 400V. We wish to create an equivalent course at the 5000 level. As it turns out, PHYS 500V is already on the books, and the course has not met for more than ten years, so we are wanting to change 500V from Seminar to Laboratory and Classroom Practices in Physics.

	Proposed Effective Date	Spring 2017	Fall 2018

	Justification	Enforcing graduate requisites.	Made changes to the community service hours requirement, allowing students to choose between two options, one community engagement oriented and one more research oriented. As stated in the 2017 syllabus (attached):  Although all students will participate in service and community based learning activities and conduct research, there are two tracks: Service and Research. Students in the service track will complete 30 hours of community service and/or community based learning during the semester in the Latino youth support programs or in an alternative educational setting, approved by the instructor and will participate in a group research project that will produce an education policy paper. Students in the research track will complete a semester long-individual research paper on any topic related to Latino education and will participate in 15 hours of community service or a community based learning project. Students wanting to fulfill the Fulbright College Senior Writing Requirement with this class should take the research track. Graduate students will have additional readings and assignments, write a longer research paper and participate in one of the policy papers projects.
