Description and justification of the request

Description of specific change	Justification for this change
Editing public health core classes to meet accreditation requirements of the Council on Education for Public Health. A change in CIM which will parallel this program change will be to make PBHL 2613 PBHL 3613 as the course content will need to change to meet accreditation requirements. Additionally, this will make the program in compliance with ADHE guidelines.	Editing public health core classes to meet accreditation requirements of the Council on Education for Public Health.
